ARTIFACTS
1997 SERIES
South China Morning Post
THE HANDOVER
LEGENDARY
SCMP A1 cover for 1997-07-01
Lead Story : Hong Kong entered its new era at the stroke of midnight, returning to China after 156 years of colonial rule by Britain
South China Morning Post
1.2m birds to be slaughtered
SUPER RARE
SCMP A1 cover for 1997-12-29
Lead Story : All Hong Kong's 1.2 million chickens to be slaughtered in a bid to rid the territory of the killer bird flu virus
South China Morning Post
Jockeys, trainers arrested as ICAC swoops at races
UNCOMMON
SCMP A1 cover for 1997-03-17
Lead Story : Four jockeys, two trainers and a horse handler were among 18 people arrested amid allegations of illegal bookmaking and race-fixing
Metadata of the Lead Story
Short Description
Issuer
Asset Creator(s)
Asset Creation Date
SUPER RARE
South China Morning Post
Jockeys, trainers arrested as ICAC swoops at races
UNCOMMON
South China Morning Post
Tung reveals his top team
128
Challenge to law changes
SCMP A1 cover for 1997-01-25
Lead Story : Chief Executive-designate Tung Chee-hwa named his post-handover governing team with a strong leaning towards business
SCMP A1 cover for 1997-07-01
Lead Story : Hong Kong entered its new era at the stroke of midnight, returning to China after 156 years of colonial rule by Britain

ARTI·FACTs
by South China Morning Post

ARTI·FACTs 1997 SERIES LEGENDARY

South China Morning Post

Jiang marks return with pledge on rights and non-interference

THE HANDOVER

Tung and his team sworn in as Patten bids tearful farewell

1997 SERIES LEGENDARY

a of the Lead Story

ong entered its new era at stroke of nt, reclaimed by China after 156 years of rule

China Morning Post (SCMP)

eung, Robert Ng

7-01

6-30, 1997-07-01

Hong Kong SAR

ong Convention and Exhibition Centre,
ment House, Tiananmen Square,
tive Council Building

ARTI·FACTs
by South China Morning Post

ARTI·FACTs 1997 SERIES RARE

South China Morning Post

Midnight protests 'must be covered by legislation passed hours later'

Tung lays down July 1 law

World leaders seek guarantee on Legco polls

I saw Pol Pot, says top general

Chu-in-two confident of political freedom

1997 SERIES RARE

a of the Lead Story

xecutive-designate Tung Chee-hwa ed no legal vacuum in Hong Kong after nt, June 30, return to China

China Morning Post (SCMP)

-mi Hon, Dustin Shum

6-23

6-22, 1997-06-30, 1997-07-01

ong

ARTI·FACTs
by South China Morning Post

ARTI·FACTs 1997 SERIES SUPER RARE

South China Morning Post

Beijing pledges to respect rights and freedoms as leaders prepare for transfer of power

HISTORY IN THE MAKING

Pattens bid their sad farewells

Charles to meet Jiang for 'goodwill' send-off

1997 SERIES SUPER RARE

a of the Lead Story

ong entered final day of British rule with ledge that China will never interfere in
's domestic affairs

China Morning Post (SCMP)

eung, Jonathan Fenby, Robert Ng

6-30

6-30, 1997-06-29

ong

ong Convention and Exhibition Centre,
all of the People, Tamar, Victoria
r, Harbour Plaza Hotel, Tiananmen

ARTI·FACTs
by South China Morning Post

ARTI·FACTs 1997 SERIES UNCOMMON

South China Morning Post

Bid to pre-empt Article 23 'not acceptable' as SAR administration vows to 'rectify situation'

Tung rejects Legco treason law vote

VIPs take harbour run to avoid protesters

Guests risk road nightmare

Blair's sister-in-law sees for herself

1997 SERIES UNCOMMON

a of the Lead Story

g Hong Kong administration rejected king to define anti-treason laws after er to China

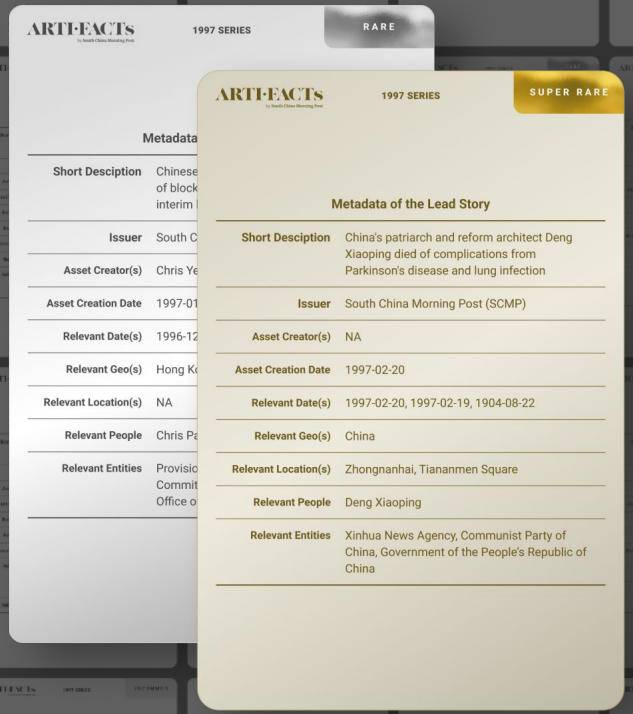
China Morning Post (SCMP)

ai-kong, May Sin-mi Hon

6-25

6-24, 1996-12, 1997-06-23

ong



Basic Info

ARTIFACT NAME

The SCMP A1 cover of 1997-07-01

ARTIFACT LONG DESCRIPTION

On July 1, 1997, the flags of Britain and Hong Kong were lowered, and those of China and the Hong Kong SAR raised in the Hong Kong Convention and Exhibition Centre. After 156 years of colonial rule, the city of Hong Kong was handed over from the hands of Britain to those of China on this day. As Chris Patten, Hong Kong's last governor, bid farewell to the city, Tung Chee Hwa, the city's Chief Executive pledged, in his brief inauguration speech, to the 6.5 million people that "for the first time in history, we, the people of Hong Kong, will be master of our own destiny."President Jiang Zemin, the first head of state of China to visit Hong Kong, said in the statement that the central government departments "will not and should not be allowed to intervene in matters that ought to be handled by the Hong Kong SAR", noting that the Basic Law protects "in full" rights and freedoms in Hong Kong. This historical event took place also with the presence of Chinese Prime Minister Li Peng and Vice-Premier Qian Qichen, and the Prince of Wales.

ASSET TYPE

A1 cover of the South China Morning Post

ARTIFACT ISSUER(S)

South China Morning Post (SCMP)

Assets info

Relevant info

ARTI·FACTs
1997 SERIES
LEGENDARY
South China Morning Post
SUPER RARE
RARE UNCOMMON
壹 玖 玖 柒
1997
PART ONE PART TWO
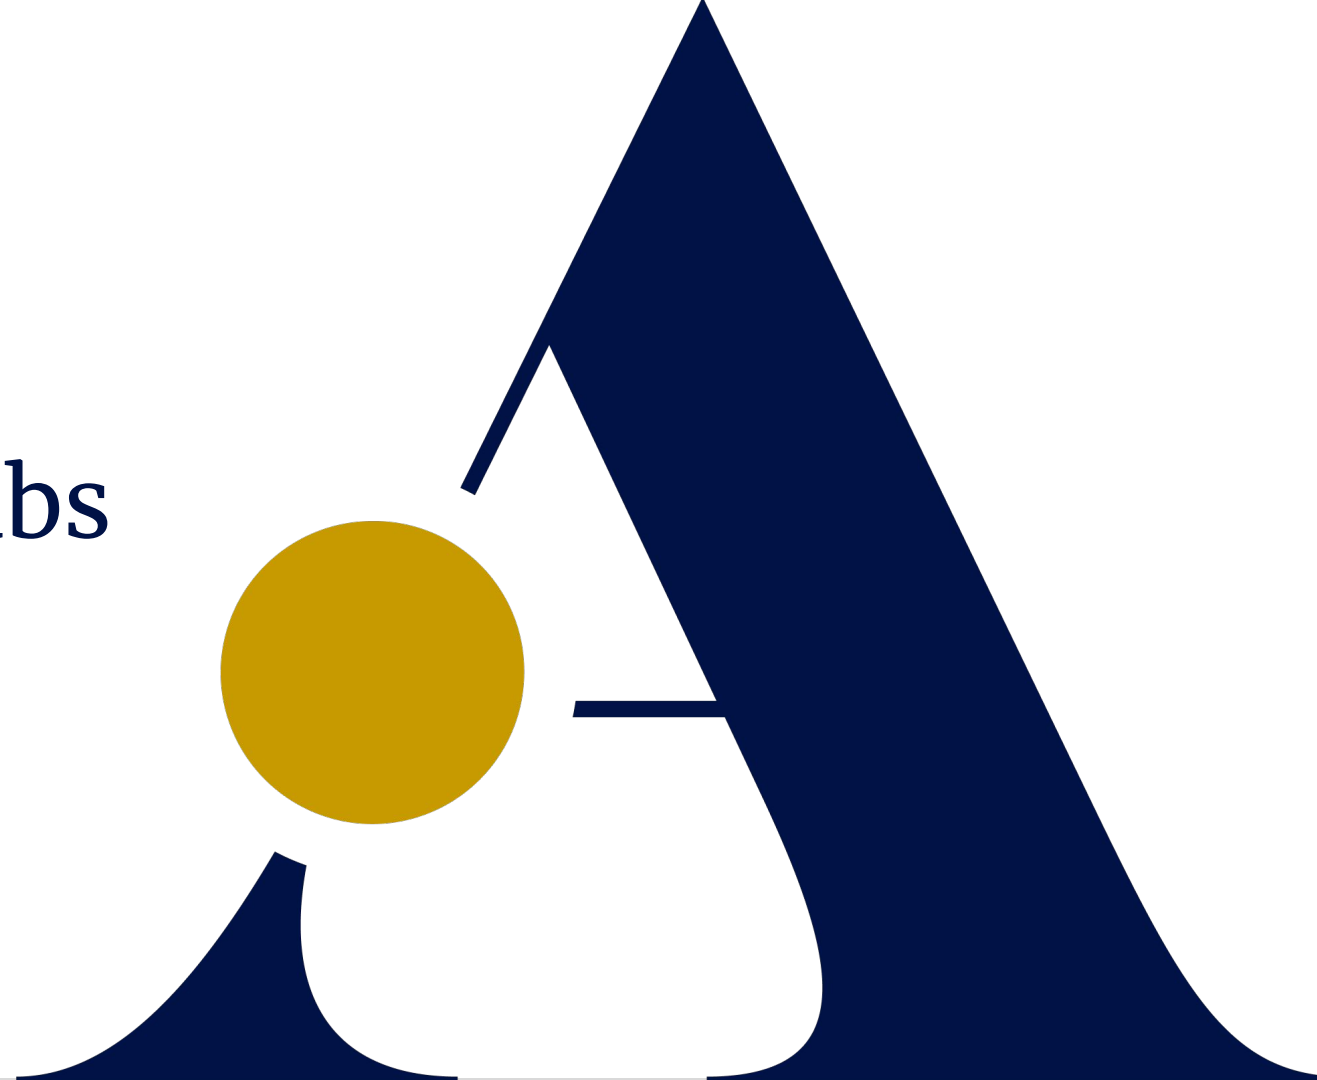
5
ARTIFACTS INSIDE
PREMIUM SERIES

CENTRAL PIER
SOUTH CHINA MORNING POST | HONG KONG

Artifact Labs


artifact@scmp.com